

Carolina Perfusion Symposium Prospectus

Date: July 18-20, 2025

Location: Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, USA

Hello there!

We're thrilled to invite you to join us as a vendor at the 5th annual Carolina Perfusion Symposium! This year, CPS is a joint effort between Perfusion Life, MUSC, and the North and South Carolina Perfusion Societies. This event attracts 100+ perfusionists from more than 25 states, along with many surgeons, cardiac anesthesiologists, ECMO and VAD specialists, and industry leaders like you for a few days of learning, networking, and fun in beautiful Myrtle Beach.

What You Can Expect:

- Engaging talks and workshops covering cutting-edge perfusion techniques and the latest advancements in cardiac surgery.
- Opportunities to showcase your products and services to a highly targeted audience eager to learn about the newest innovations.
- The perfect setting to connect with potential customers and collaborators in a relaxed, welcoming atmosphere.
- Family-friendly activities sponsored by Perfusion Life, so attendees can bring their loved ones and enjoy the beach together.
- Insightful discussions on organ procurement and updates in perfusion education, ensuring everyone stays ahead of industry trends.

Why Exhibit with Us?

- Gain direct access to key players in the perfusion industry while enjoying the laid-back ambiance of Myrtle Beach.
- Sponsorship packages designed to fit your goals and budget, including opportunities to support the meeting through speaker sponsorships and meal options.
- Personalized support from our team at Perfusion Life and the Palmetto State Perfusion Society to ensure a seamless and valuable experience.

We're all about making connections, sharing knowledge, and enjoying the experience while doing so. We'd love to have you join us at the Carolina Perfusion Symposium!
